How does Paul describe our situation before we knew Jesus? (V1-3)

How does this compare with how you think of how you were/how the world is?

Why does Paul need us to hear this?

How might remembering this description of how we were help us when we feel proud or when we feel overwhelmed by our sin?

What changes in verse four? What's the repeated phrase in v5&6?

What struck you about Grace from verse 7?

We're often shy about talking about sin or judgement with people. What would we lose in our evangelism if we minimise sin?
